

Hungarian Helicon Foundation Award at Innis College: 2020–2021 Cycle

Established in 1999, this award for students interested in Hungarian topics has been set up at Innis College and is open to any student enrolled in an undergraduate program at the University of Toronto.

Eligibility

To be awarded to full-time University of Toronto undergraduate students on the basis of financial need, academic achievement, and demonstrated ability to discuss Hungarian themes.

Recipients must have completed at least 4.0 credits and must be returning to undergraduate study in the following Fall/Winter Session.

As an award endowed with funds from the Ontario Student Opportunity Trust Fund (OSOTF), students must meet the following criteria: (1) Canadian Citizenship/Permanent Resident/Protected Person; (2) Ontario residency, see “How do I know if I qualify as an Ontario resident for student loan purposes?”; and (3) financial need. Receiving OSAP, for example, demonstrates eligibility in all three criteria for this award.

How to Apply

The deadline to apply is 19 April 2021 at 11:59 p.m. Applications must be sent electronically to the Innis College Registrar’s Office (registrar.innis@utoronto.ca) from your UTmail+ account.

- Parts to the Application:
- Completed application form (page 2 of this package)
 - A piece of original work demonstrating your ability to discuss Hungarian themes in relation to your area of study
 - A screenshot from your OSAP account that includes your name and the amount of OSAP you are receiving for the current academic year. If you did not receive OSAP but believe you have financial need, submit a completed Undergraduate Grant Application form

Awarding Body

The award body is the Innis College Council on the recommendation of an adjudicating committee that will include the Principal of Innis College, faculty representative(s) as selected by the Principal, members of the Hungarian Chair and the Hungarian Research Institute, the Presidents of the Hungarian Helicon Foundation (Ontario) and the Hungarian Helicon Society. The Innis College Financial Aid Officer will review the U of T Undergraduate Grant Application Form.

Value

The value of this award varies from year to year, but is generally between $1,500 and $3,000.

Results

Students can expect to hear results by July. The award will be paid out in September after registration for the 2021-2022 Fall/Winter Session is confirmed. Awards are paid directly to outstanding fees first. Please ensure that you have added direct deposit in ACORN or that your mailing address on ACORN is up to date, as award cheques may be mailed to that address.
